

FOOTPATHS

There are no major footpath issues to report.

At the time of writing most of the footpaths are in good condition and without any obstructions.

Another quantity of wood chippings has been placed on footpath ten by a team of volunteers and further chippings are expected to be donated soon which will be used where most needed.

A number of new footpath direction signs have been placed in various positions and more are available where required.

Malcolm Turner